

Samra Community News

Fall/Winter 2009

ACADEMIA:

Our Quarterly Class Schedules are available at www.samra.edu

Scholarship: Presidential Scholarship program began in Summer 2009. Deadline for applying to the scholarship is every 12th week of the quarter. Scholarship recipients will be announced in the 2nd week of the quarter. Other scholarships are also available. Please check with your respective deans.

Fall 2009 Presidential Scholarship recipients are: Lisa Mary Chan, Jung Kyo Park, and Chih-Ling Chou.

Samra University 40th Anniversary Celebration was held on October 11, 2009 at Griffith Park. Our alumni, staff, and families came to partake in this celebration.

The DAOM Program began its Second Year class with Dr. Jong Hwa Lee's Pain I on Vertex Synchronizing Technique (VST) in Fall 2009.

Samra University 40th Anniversary Celebration Oct. 11, 2009

CLINIC:

Externship at Minority AIDS Project, Los Angeles: SAMRA University will continue its externship at the Minority AIDS Project, a non-profit organization that provides a variety of health, mental health and social services to those affected by HIV/AIDS. This program is extremely popular among their clients, staff and our students.

Samra University Community Outreach:

During the month of October, Samra University is participating with the Mexican Consulate in Binational Health Month. Samra University will participate at health fairs at the Mexican Consulate in October 2009. On October 24, Samra University will participate in a health fair at historic Olvera Street in downtown Los Angeles.

Samra student Guillermina Galván teaches a free tai qi class to the public at the Los Angeles Pico-Union Library on Wednesday afternoons from 1:30-2:30 PM. Ms. Galván also leads a morning meditation in the Samra library on Mondays at 9 AM.

We are continuing to build a strong academic community and networking for our students and alumni. We welcome your innovative ideas and suggestions. Please contact the Academic Dean, Dr. Yeaji Suh at ysuh@samra.edu, or stop by her office.